

TaLK (Theoretical Linguistics at Keio) 2019

Myanmar Linguistics, State of the Art

2 November (13:00-17:20) - 3 November (10:00-18:00)

G-Lab, Mita Campus, Keio University

This symposium aims to present and debate the latest data and information in Myanmar linguistics and to promote social and intellectual interactions among researchers in this field from Myanmar and Japan. Issues that will be discussed include: morphosyntax, historical linguistics, semantics, and phonology of the languages spoken in the Myanmar linguistic area.

Presenters:

Tun Aung Kyaw (Yangon University of Distance Education, Myanmar)

Mya Mya Win (Myeik University, Myanmar)

Nyein Nyein (Yangon University, Myanmar)

Sawada, Hideo (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, Japan)

Okano, Kenji (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, Japan)

Thuzar Hlaing (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, Japan)

Huziwarara, Keisuke (Kyoto University, Japan)

Otsuka, Kosei (Osaka University, Japan)

Shimizu, Misato (Osaka University, Japan)

Thu Thu Nwe Aye (Osaka University, Japan)

Kato, Atsuhiko (Keio University, Japan)

Discussant:

Yabu, Shiro (Professor Emeritus, Osaka University, Japan)

For any questions please email
genbu@icl.keio.ac.jp